Our Vision

Through a community-wide effort,
all children in the Lower Dauphin community shall grow up to become healthy, productive adults.

Welcome

Welcome to the latest edition of Lower Dauphin Communities That Care's Community Guide! The Lower Dauphin community is made up of five unique municipalities – Hummelstown Borough and the townships of Conewago, East Hanover, Londonderry and South Hanover.

No matter which municipality, we share a common bond through the Lower Dauphin School District. Lower Dauphin Communities That Care is a nonprofit which provides programs for our youth from preschool through graduation to help them grow into healthy, productive adults.

Lower Dauphin is a great place to live, work, and raise a family. If you are new to the area or a life-long resident, we hope you find this publication to be informative.

Please note that no business, agency or group has paid to be included in our Guide. We would also like to thank Jaiden Dissinger and Jordan Dormer, our student representatives to our board of directors, for their help in editing and updating the entries.

We strive to be as accurate as possible, and we hope you find resources and services in this guide to be helpful. If you think of something to include in the next edition, please contact me at 717-566-5307.

If you would like more information about Lower Dauphin Communities That Care, please contact our program director, Angela Durantine, at 717-350-0428, angela@ldctc.org or visit our website at www.ldctc.org.

COMMUNITY PROFILES

CONEWAGO TOWNSHIP

Conewago Township is the smallest municipality in the Lower Dauphin School District in terms of population.

In the past decade, the township has actually decreased 1.5 percent in population according to the 2020 U.S. Census, coming in with 2,952 residents. And as you would expect, it has the fewest number of housing units in Lower Dauphin with 1,179. Residents are very proud of the rural nature of the township.

The township recently built its first recreational park – Danny Fisher Memorial Park which is located next to Conewago Elementary School. The park boasts a baseball / softball field, soccer field, tennis / pickle ball courts, basketball court and a paved walking path that leads through the Caleb Wehry Memorial Butterfly Garden.

Conewago is classified as a township of the second class and is governed by a three-member board of supervisors who serve six-year terms. There are two polling precincts in the township – the First Precinct (covering the area south of Ridge Road) and the Second Precinct (covering the area north of Ridge Road) – with both polling places located at the Historic Acres of Hershey.

EAST HANOVER TOWNSHIP

East Hanover Township, Dauphin County has the third-largest land area of any township in Dauphin County, covering 40.2 square miles.

East Hanover Township continues to see steady growth in its population. In 2010, the U.S. Census reported 5,718 residents. By 2020, the Census indicated that the township's population has grown 9.5 percent in that period, which is one of the faster rates in the county. This growth is expected to continue with the addition of 150 planned lots in the Grantville Commons neighborhood.

The township is also home to the largest employer in the school district with Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course. The casino is a catalyst for a large amount of commercial development in that part of the township as well.

East Hanover is classified as a township of the second class and is governed by a five-member board of supervisors. There are two polling precincts in the township – the First Precinct and the Second Precinct – with both polling places located at the municipal building.

HUMMELSTOWN BOROUGH

Hummelstown is located in the center of the Lower Dauphin School District and boasts a thriving downtown with shops, restaurants and businesses.

The borough has the greatest population density of all of the school district's municipalities, but in terms of population, it is the fourth-largest with 4,544 residents according to the 2020 U.S. Census. Hummelstown has the bulk of the school district's rental properties and has the largest population 65 and older.

The borough hosts several large community events every year which include a pair of carnivals in the town park, an arts festival, holiday events, and parades.

The Hummelstown Borough municipal government is comprised of a mayor and seven council members elected to four-year staggered terms. The borough operates under the "Council/Manager" form of government. There are two polling precincts in the borough – the First Precinct and the Second Precinct – with both polling places located at the Lower Dauphin High School.

LONDONDERRY TOWNSHIP

Londonderry Township is also seeing a decline in population according to the 2020 Census with a drop of 336 residents in the past decade, or a 9.4 decrease.

There is very little commercial development outside the State Route 230 corridor. However, there are large distribution center and warehouse projects on the horizon which will bring jobs and much needed tax revenue to the township and school district. The township was home to the Three Mile Island Nuclear Generating Station which ceased operation in 2019.

The township is home to Sunset Park with picnic pavilions, children's playgrounds, 4 ball fields, 2 bocce ball courts, basketball court, beach volleyball and horseshoe pits, along with special events including the Stars & Stripes Salute. The township also operates the Sunset Golf Course, an 18-hole course with pro shop, driving range, and clubhouse restaurant.

The township is classified as a township of the second class and is governed by a five-member board of supervisors. The township has three polling precincts – the First Precinct votes at the Living Hope Church; the Second Precinct votes at the Londonderry Fire Company; and the Third Precinct votes at Bright Hope Fellowship Church.

SOUTH HANOVER TOWNSHIP

South Hanover Township is the smallest township in the Lower Dauphin School District based on land area (11.4 square miles), but it is also the municipality which has seen the most growth in recent years.

According to the 2010 U.S. Census, the population was 6,248. However, in the past decade, continued housing growth has swelled the population to 7,209, an increase of 8.7 percent. South Hanover Township continues to be one of the fastest growing municipalities in the county, and it is the most populous in the Lower Dauphin School District.

As a township of the second class, South Hanover is governed by a Board of Supervisors made of five members elected at large to staggered, six-year terms. There are three polling precincts in the township – First Precinct votes at Grace and Truth Bible Church; the Second and Third Precinct votes at the municipal building.

LOWER DAUPHIN SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Lower Dauphin School District is predominantly a “bedroom community” with its residents driving someplace else to work. The two largest employers housed in the school district are Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course and the school district itself. Much of the district consists of residential developments, farmland and forests.

The school district has five elementary schools, a middle school, a high school and a center for students with emotional support needs. The district’s total enrollment is about 3,625 students. Lower Dauphin has a total budget of $73.9 million.

The district’s performance on standardized tests is consistently higher than the state average. Between 75 and 80 percent of Lower Dauphin High School graduates pursue higher education opportunities.

CTC PROGRAMS

For more information on the following programs, contact CTC Program Director Angela Durantine at 717-350-0428.

Be Kind Initiative – Promotes intentional acts of kindness throughout the school district and community.

Books on Board Bookmobile (Birth-Adult, year-round) - LD CTC's bookmobile travels to neighborhoods and key locations within our townships and Hummelstown. We offer story time at each stop and loan books to children and adults. Visit ldctc.org for the schedule.

Big Brothers Big Sisters (grades 1-12, September-June) - Provides school-based mentoring relationships with an adult. If you would like to be a mentor, email angela@ldctc.org.

Club & Camp Ophelia (grades 2-5 - October-April; grade 6 - January-March) – An after-school program that helps girls improve their relationships with other girls and provides alternatives to bullying situations and relationally aggressive behaviors. Camp Ophelia is a 4-day program offered in June to girls coming into 6th grade.

Do The Right Thing (grades K-12, September-May) - A monthly award program honoring children in our community who distinguish themselves through their attitude and efforts. An annual banquet is held in May for the winners and their families.

On Applebee Pond Puppets (grades 9-12) – High school students are trained to present life skills such as self-esteem and peacemaking to elementary students through puppetry.

OPERATION: Breaking the Boy Code (grades 4-5) – This program offers a safe place for boys to gather and connect in positive ways through creative art activities and the meaning of brotherhood in a variety of cultures.

Parents Who Host Lose the Most (April-May) - A public awareness campaign to educate parents on the consequences of serving alcohol to minors.

Preschool Literacy Outreach (ages 1-4, year-round) - Preschoolers registered in Lower Dauphin School District census receive a free book on their birthday to encourage early readers.

Red Ribbon Week (October) – The LD school resource officer and LD CTC program director visit our elementary schools during the third week of October to discuss the importance of making good choices. All students receive a red ribbon and pencil.

Strengthening Families Program (for parents and youth in 6th grade, September-October) – An evidence-based family inclusive program that promotes positive communication, family bonding, and joint problem-solving skills. Families enjoy a meal together, attend separate sessions and then join together for a family activity.

Study Buddies (grades 3-5, November-February) – In partnership with the school district, we match high school students with identified elementary students to provide after school homework help.

Community Aid Donation Bins

“NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS”

Clean out your closets and help our community!

Lower Dauphin Communities That Care has five Community Aid donation bins located in the Lower Dauphin community. These collection bins will accept your donations of gently-used clothing, shoes and accessories. LD CTC receives a monetary donation based upon the amount of clothing donated, and funds are used to provide programs and services for children and families in our community!

Our bins can be found at the following locations:

Conewago Elementary School

2809 Hershey Road, Elizabethtown

East Hanover Elementary School

2673 Sandbeach Road, Grantville

Lower Dauphin Middle School

251 Quarry Road, Hummelstown

South Hanover Elementary School

15 W. Third Street, Union Deposit, Hershey

Subway Restaurant

315 E. Main Street, Hummelstown

Please do not leave any items outside of the bins.

Donations can also be taken directly to any Community Aid store. If dropping donations at the store, please tell them you would like to designate your donation to go to Lower Dauphin Communities That Care.

For more information on Community Aid and their East Shore store, go to their website at communityaid.org.
